

Unwanted Robocalls

Lumos Networks is very concerned about the number of suspected illegal and unwanted robocalls calls our customers receive and the potential harmful impact they can cause. Everyday, scammers use the telephone to try and trick people out of money or obtain access to personal information. To help you and your family avoid becoming a victim of unwanted and potentially unlawful robocalls, we encourage all customers to read the FCC's tips and tools to combat robocalls. Click this link for details.